I took this opportunity to thank Saltonstall for his letter concerning

[redacted] He said he was happy to be of assistance.

I also took this opportunity to ask Saltonstall to pass a message to the Senator that the matter which General Carter and Mr. Warner had discussed with the Senator about Cuban prisoners was now off in view of the existing situation.

[redacted] Robert McManus, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, has asked if we could verify the fact that there are Guinean troops in Cuba. In this connection, he referred to a Chicago Negro newspaper, THE NEW CRUSADER of 27 October 1962 which indicated that some of these Guineans had been ruthlessly killed by Soviets in Cuba.
